

SOUTH CAROLINA COMBAT ART ALLIANCE

What is the S.C. Combat Arts Alliance?

The S.C. Combat Arts Alliance is an organization of martial artist, fighters, and combat practitioners, that is dedicated toward the advancement, propagation, and training of the fighting arts. The purpose of the S.C.C.A.A. is to expose its members to different discipline of fighting arts, provide cross training, promote different combat arts and their schools, and make each member a more complete and well rounded combat and fighting practitioner.

Why do I need S.C. Combat Arts Alliance?

Many combat arts feel that their discipline is the best, and having pride in your art is excellent. However, the goal of a combat practitioner, martial artist, or MMA fighter should be to have all around skills in many fighting disciplines. The Brazilian Jujitsu artist should know about boxing and muay thai skills. The Tae Kwon Do artist should be versed in ground fighting skills. The boxer should be versed in ground skills and avoid being taken to the ground. In short, a person should not limit themselves to one style or study. In the ring or the street, it is better to have more tools than one to ensure your survival and victory. The S.C.C.A.A. will give each member the opportunity to train with different instructors who represent different combat disciplines. Whether you are a traditional martial artist, reality based, or MMA fighter, the S.C.C.A.A. can help to make you the best specimen possible in the combat arena.

Quarterly, we will have a prominent guest instructor to hold a seminar in the area for our members. The seminars will vary in disciplines and combat arts, to reach the training needs of all our members. We will go out of our way to try and get the best instructors to bring to our people.

What type of disciplines will the S.C. Combat Arts include?

We will accept and welcome them all. This will include Jujitsu, Karate, Muay Thai, Boxing, MMA, Wrestling, Krav Maga, Tae Kwon Do, Kung Fu, Military CQC, and much more. No matter what your discipline or combat experience, you will gain valuable self defense and fighting experience from the many disciplines. Remember, “There is no such thing as a bad martial or fighting, only bad practitioners.” No matter who you are or the discipline you represent, you can ALWAYS learn something from someone else. The moment you think you know it all, is the minute you stop learning and get complacent.

How will S.C.C.A.A. training and activities work?

If you are an S.C.C.A.A. instructor, you will host a training seminar at your class at least once a month at your facility or location of choice. The training will be at least one hour long, and will be the instructor’s choice of training material. This class or seminar can be held during your normal training days that you have class. This one hour training will be offered at no cost or fee to a member of the S.C.C.A.A. Each instructor will choose a time and date each month to hold this training. An instructor may hold more than one training session per month, but this is up to the individual instructor. Any person that is not a member of the S.C.C.A.A. that wishes to attend these training sessions, may be charged at the hosting school’s discretion.

Each S.C.C.A.A. training center can travel as a group and train with another S.C.C.A.A. training center. Each month, a training facility can visit your facility and train with you

Is S.C.C.A.A. a ranking organization?

No. Our goal is not to issue martial arts or fighting arts rank or promotions. Our goal is to bring hardcore knowledge and training to our members. This organization is NOT a political organization. We are not formed on egos, power trips, or control. However, if you are interested in ranking in a particular discipline or school, you may see that instructor for more in depth personal instruction.

Will S.C.C.A.A. help to promote member schools and their activities?

Yes. Our goal is to help spread the word of legitimate martial and combat art events held through our member schools.

We will do this through emails, promotional flyers, social networks, and many other venues. We will also endorse your school to the public and help to drive interested parties to your school interested in your discipline. Events include but not limited to, MMA events, boxing events, school seminars and clinics, charitable events, and more.

The S.C.C.A.A. will have a webpage that will list updates and news of schools and members. Each member school, training centers, and clubs will be listed on the site along with contact info and link to websites.

Open meetings will be held periodically with school heads and members. We will accept suggestions and discuss new ideas to improve the S.C.C.A.A.

What are the cost to join S.C.C.A.A.?

To receive instructor status, you must have extensive experience in the martial or combat art you are teaching. You must possess certifications in the art you are teaching and have teaching experience. You will receive a instructor membership certificate and your name and school on the S.C.C.A.A. webpage.

To join as a member, you do not have to have any particular martial arts or combat experience. You need to be a person in good standing with a hunger and passion to learn and spread the combat arts. When you submit your application, it will be voted on by the S.C.C.A.A. board to confirm your membership. You will receive a membership certificate, and your name will be placed on the S.C.C.A.A. website as a member.

To be a member school, you must have five people from your school signed up under the S.C.C.A.A. Your school will receive a school membership certificate and be placed on the S.C.C.A.A. website as a member school. These are the cost associated with memberships:

General Membership: $40.00 yearly per person annually

Instructor Certificate and Membership: $60.00 annually

School Membership: $75.00 annually

Each instructor, general member, or school must fill out the S.C.C.A.A membership application. Fill it out completely and send it along with check or money order to the address on the application. Allow one week for process of application.

For more information on South Carolina Combat Arts Alliance, contact S.C.C.A.A and founder Sensei Lance Adams at (803)605-6192 or (803) 518-9801. Also visit FUDOSHINJUITSU.COM and click the S.C.C.A.A. link on the home page.